

The George Washington Society

in association with

The James Madison Program in American Ideals and Institutions at Princeton University
the Institute for Faith and Freedom at Grove City College Regent University's Robertson School of Government and The Michael Medved Show

presents a live nationally broadcast event commemorating the 245th anniversary of Cornwallis' surrender to Washington at Yorktown

GEORGE WASHINGTON AND FAITH

What Do We Know? Why Does It Matter? Why Should I Care?

OCTOBER 19, 2026, 5:30 PM PT, 6:30 PM MT, 7:30 PM CT, 8:30 PM ET

Attend onsite or tune in to the live worldwide webcast

A LANDMARK LIVE DISCUSSION

Hosted by bestselling author, commentator, historian, TV and radio personality
Michael Medved

Robert P. George, PhD
Princeton University

Paul G. Kengor, PhD
Grove City College

Mark David Hall, PhD
Regent University

General George Washington

What did George Washington actually believe about God, faith, Providence, religion, and morality? How much can we really know from the historical record? Did Washington's faith influence his character, leadership, and understanding of the new American republic? And more than two centuries later—why should any of this matter to us?

This milestone live event will bring together an extraordinary panel of nationally recognized scholars, historians, and commentators for a thoughtful examination of one of the most fascinating and debated dimensions of the life of the Father of Our Country.

Go to www.GeorgeWashingtonSociety.org to register for this special free event.